23 PARK, OFFICER DEAN BECKER

COMPLAINT

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1988

SECOND AMENDMENT

FOURTH AMENDMENT

FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT

26 INTRODUCTION

27 1. Plaintiff BRENDAN RICHARDS is an honorably discharged United States
28 Marine who saw combat duty in Iraq. He was wrongfully arrested and

1 required to make bail and hire criminal counsel in a state criminal case in
2 which he was factually innocent.

3 2. Plaintiff RICHARDS spent six (6) days in the Sonoma County jail while his 4 family tried to raise the funds for him to make bail.

5 3. This deprivation of liberty, and the costs imposed on BRENDAN RICHARDS
6 are the direct result of only two possible theories:

7 a. California's Assault Weapon definition, as set forth in Penal Code §
8 12276.1 is unconstitutionally vague, or

9 b. The CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE has failed in its duty
10 to keep the State's District Attorneys, Sheriffs and Municipal Law
11 Enforcement agencies properly updated and informed of emerging
12 firearm technologies. The breach of this duty places law-abiding 13 citizens at risk of arrest and unlawful incarceration for exercising their 14 "right to keep and bear arms." This risk of prosecution has a chilling
15 effect on the exercise of a fundamental right.

16 4. Plaintiff BRENDAN RICHARDS also seeks monetary damages and
17 injunctive relief against the CITY OF ROHNERT PARK and OFFICER
18 BECKER for unlawful seizure of his person and his firearms.

19 PARTIES

20 5. Plaintiff BRENDAN RICHARDS is a natural person and citizen of the 21 United States and of the State of California. He is an honorably discharged
22 United States Marine with six months of combat duty in Iraq.

23 6. Plaintiff CALGUNS FOUNDATION, INC., (CGF) is a non-profit organization
24 incorporated under the laws of California with its principal place of business
25 in San Carlos, California. The purposes of CGF include supporting the 26 California firearms community by promoting education for all stakeholders
27 about California and federal firearms laws, rights and privileges, and 28 defending and protecting the civil rights of California gun owners. CGF

1 represents its members and supporters, which include California gun owners.
 2 CGF brings this action on behalf of itself and its supporters, who possess all
 3 the indicia of membership.

4 7. Plaintiff SECOND AMENDMENT FOUNDATION, INC., (SAF) is a non-
 5 profit membership organization incorporated under the laws of Washington
 6 with its principal place of business in Bellvue, Washtington. SAF has over 7 650,000 members and supporters nationwide, including California. The 8 purposes of SAF include education, research, publishing and legal action
 9 focusing on the Constitutional right to privately owned and possess firearms,
 10 and the consequences of gun control. SAF brings this action on behalf of 11 itself and its members.

12 8. Defendant KAMALA HARRIS is the Attorney General of the State of 13 California and she is obligated to supervise her agency and comply with all 14 statutory duties under California Law. She is charged with enforcing,
 15 interpreting and promulgating regulations regarding California's Assault
 16 Weapons Statutes.

17 9. Defendant CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE is an agency of the 18 State of California, headed by the Attorney General of the State, with a 19 statutory duty to enforce, administer and interpret the law and promulgate
 20 regulations regarding weapons identified by the California Legislature as 21 "Assault Weapons." This agency also has the power to issue memorandums, 22 bulletins and opinion letters to law enforcement agencies throughout the 23 State regarding reasonable interpretations of what constitutes an "Assault
 24 Weapon" under California Law.

25 10. Defendant CITY OF ROHNERT PARK a municipal subdivision of the State
 26 of California located in Sonoma County. Defendant CITY OF ROHNERT
 27 PARK maintains a Department of Public Safety and is responsible for setting
 28 the policies and procedures of that Department, including but not limited to

1 the training and discipline of peace officers employed by the CITY OF
2 ROHNERT PARK.

3 11. Defendant OFFICER DEAN BECKER was a peace officer employed by the 4 CITY OF ROHNERT PARK for all relevant time periods for this complaint.

5 12. At this time, Plaintiffs are ignorant of the names any additional individual
6 Defendants who participated in the arrest Plaintiff BRENDAN RICHARDS.
7 Plaintiffs therefore name these individual officers as DOE Defendants and 8 reserves the right to amend this complaint when their true names are 9 ascertained. Furthermore, if/when additional persons and entities are 10 discovered to have assisted and/or lent support to the wrongful conduct of the 11 Defendants named herein, Plaintiff reserves the right to amend this 12 complaint to add those persons and/or entities as Defendants.

13 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

14 13. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28
15 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1343, 2201, 2202 and 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1988.

16 14. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over any state law causes of action
17 arising from the same operative facts under 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

18 15. Venue for this action is proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and/or the Civil Local 19 Rules for bringing an action in this district.

20 CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

21 16. All conditions precedent have been performed, and/or have occurred, and/or 22 have been excused, and/or would be futile.

23 FACTS

24 17. On or about May 20, 2010, Defendant BECKER arrested Plaintiff
25 RICHARDS thus depriving him of his liberty.

26 18. On or about May 20, 2010, Defendant BECKER seized firearms (2 pistols and 27 1 rifle) from Plaintiff RICHARDS, thus depriving him of the means of 28 exercising his Second Amendment rights.

1 19. The arresting agency case number for the incident is: 10-0001930. The 2 docket number for the Sonoma Superior Court Case was: SCR 583167.

3 20. Defendant BECKER investigated a disturbance at a Motel 6 located at 6145
4 Commerce Blvd., which was within his operational jurisdiction.

5 21. While both men were on the sidewalk at the motel, Defendant BECKER
6 questioned Plaintiff RICHARDS about his involvement in the disturbance,
7 and during the conversation, RICHARDS revealed that he had unloaded
8 firearms in the trunk of his vehicle.

9 22. Defendant BECKER indicated that he planned to search the trunk of 10 RICHARDS' vehicle and began to walk toward RICHARDS' car. After 11 BECKER asked a second time if Plaintiffs' firearms were loaded and 12 responding "no", RICHARDS inquired whether OFFICER BECKER needed a
13 warrant to search the trunk of his car.

14 23. Apparently relying on Penal Code § 12031(e), OFFICER BECKER replied
15 that since RICHARDS had admitted that firearms were in the trunk, no
16 warrant was necessary.

17 24. Only after this statement, and in obedience to BECKER'S demand, did
18 RICHARDS turn over the keys to the trunk of his vehicle.

19 25. OFFICER BECKER found two pistols and one rifle, along with other firearm-
20 related equipment in the trunk. None of the firearms were loaded.

21 26. OFFICER BECKER inquired about the registration of Plaintiff's firearms
22 and RICHARDS replied that those firearms that required registration were 23 in fact registered to him.

24 27. OFFICER BECKER placed RICHARDS under arrest for a violation of CA
25 Penal Code § 12280(b) – Possession of an unregistered Assault Weapon.

26 28. On the strength of an incident report prepared by OFFICER BECKER, who 27 claimed to be a firearm instructor and an expert witness having previously
28 testified about the identification of Assault Weapons, Plaintiff RICHARDS

1 was charged by the Sonoma County District Attorney with the following
 2 crimes by way of felony complaint:

3 a. Two counts of possession of an Assault Weapon under California Penal
 4 Code § 12280 et seq.

5 b. Four counts of possession of large capacity magazines.

6 29. Bail was set at $20,000.00. RICHARDS spent 6 days in jail while his family
 7 tried to raise the funds for bail. Finally, a $1,400 non-refundable fee was paid
 8 to a bondsman and RICHARDS was released on bail.

9 30. On September 9, 2010, prior to a scheduled Preliminary Hearing, the Sonoma
 10 County District Attorney's Office dismissed all charges against Plaintiff
 11 BRENDAN RICHARDS.

12 31. The dismissal was based on an August 16, 2010 report prepared by Senior 13 Criminalist John Yount of the California Department of Justice Bureau of 14 Forensic Services. Criminalist Yount had found that none of RICHARDS
 15 firearms were assault weapons as defined by the California Penal Code or 16 any of its regulations.

17 a. One firearm (a semi-automatic pistol) had a properly installed bullet
 18 button, thus rendering the firearm incapable of accepting a detachable
 19 magazine that could only be removed from the gun by the use of a tool.

20 b. The other firearm (a semi-automatic rifle) had none of the features or 21 characteristics that make a firearm subject to registration under CA's
 22 Assault Weapon regime.

23 c. There was never an issue with the third firearm (another semi-24 automatic pistol that is actually on the California safe handgun list)
 25 being classified as an assault weapon and it was registered to Plaintiff.

26 32. All of RICHARDS' firearms were semi-automatic guns. California certifies
 27 scores of semi-automatic pistols (including models based on the venerable .45 28 Cal. M1911 of World War II vintage) for retail sale in California.

1 cause for the police to arrest RICHARDS as a quid pro quo for their
 2 stipulation for a finding of factual innocence. In other words, it can be
 3 inferred that the Sonoma County District Attorney still believed, after 4 dismissing the case against RICHARDS, that there is enough ambiguity in
 5 the California Assault Weapon statutes and regulations that reasonable
 6 minds can differ and that experts are required to interpret the law. Of course
 7 this set of circumstances will still result in gun-owners continuing to be 8 arrested, having to post bail, and having to hire attorneys and experts to 9 clear their names.

10 35. BRENDAN RICHARDS made all required court appearances until the 11 matter was dismissed on September 9, 2010.

12 36. BRENDAN RICHARD was thus deprived of his liberty while he was 13 incarcerated pending the posting of bail and then through to September 9, 14 2010 when the case was dismissed and bail was exonerated.

15 37. BRENDAN RICHARDS lost time off from work and incurred travel expenses
 16 to make court appearances. He also incurred other losses associated with the 17 criminal case against him.

18 38. BRENDAN RICHARDS was deprived of the possession and use of valuable
 19 personal property (two pistols and a rifle), necessary for exercising his Second 20 Amendment "right to keep and bear arms." This deprivation of 21 constitutionally protected property occurred from the date of his arrest until 22 the property was returned to him following the dismissal.

23 39. CALGUNS FOUNDATION, INC., paid $11,224.86 for Plaintiff BRENDAN
 24 RICHARDS' legal representation in the criminal matter.

25 40. CALGUNS FOUNDATION, INC., has also paid for the defense and expert
 26 consultations for many other California residents similarly situated. (e.g., 27 possession of a "bullet button" semi-automatic rifle, arrest and dismissal of 28 charges.)

41. The CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE is the State agency responsible for the training and education of law enforcement agencies with respect to Assault Weapons under Penal Code §§ 12276.5 and 12289.
42. Furthermore, California Penal Code §§ 13500 et seq., establishes a commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training that requires the DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, with the Attorney General as an ex officio member of the commission, which is to provide personnel, training and training material to cities and counties to insure an effective and professional level of law enforcement within the State of California.
43. Furthermore, California Attorney General KAMALA HARRIS has concurrent prosecutorial jurisdiction with the state's 58 District Attorneys, and as a prosecutor she is bound by a duty to seek substantial justice and avoid the filing of criminal charges in which she knows or should know are not supported by probable cause. HARRIS also has an independent duty to disclose information beneficial to the accused and by extension she has a duty to prevent wrongful arrests in the first place when she has the power to do so.
44. California's definitions of Assault Weapons are set forth at Penal Code §§ 12276 and 12276.1.
45. The California Code of Regulations interpreting the statutory definition of assault weapons are found at Title 11, Division 5, Chapters 39 & 40.
46. The Orange County Sheriff's Department has issued a training bulletin about the "bullet button" to prevent wrongful arrests in that county.
47. The City of Sacramento has issued a training bulletin about the "bullet button" to prevent wrongful arrests in that jurisdiction.
48. The Calguns Foundation Inc., has published a flow-chart to identify weapons that are designated as assault weapons under California law.
49. Defendant CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE has promulgated an "Assault Weapons Identification Guide," an 84-page publication which describes the Assault Weapons regulated in Penal Code sections 12276, 12276.1, and 12276.5. In the Guide, the Department acknowledges that a magazine is considered detachable when it “can be removed readily from the firearm with neither disassembly of the firearm action nor use of a tool being required. A bullet or ammunition cartridge is considered a tool.”

50. Defendant CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE has previously declined to issue a statewide bulletin or other directive regarding the “bullet button.”

51. Because Defendant CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE will not issue a bulletin to prevent future arrests, Penal Code § 12276.1 is unconstitutionally vague as it was applied to Plaintiff RICHARDS, and he has a continuing reasonable fear that he may suffer wrongful arrests in the future. The vagueness arises because qualified (and apparent) experts appear to disagree about whether a particular firearm is an assault weapon under California’s statutory scheme, despite the fact that semi-automatic rifles are in common use by the public and are therefore protected under the Second Amendment.

52. Because Defendant CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE will not issue a bulletin to prevent future wrongful arrests, Penal Code § 12276.1 is unconstitutionally vague, and the Calguns Foundation Inc., and the Second Amendment Foundation Inc., fear that its member may be subject to future wrongful arrests. The vagueness arises because qualified experts appear to disagree about whether a particular rifle is an assault weapon under California’s statutory scheme, despite the fact that semi-automatic rifles are in common use by the public and are therefore protected under the Second Amendment.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF:
SECOND AMENDMENT, UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION
42 USC § 1983, 1988 - INJUNCTIVE/DECLARATORY RELIEF
AGAINST DEFENDANTS: HARRIS AND CALIFORNIA DEPT OF JUSTICE

53. Paragraphs 1 through 52 are incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

54. California Penal Code § 12276.1 is unconstitutionally vague and thus results in the wrongful arrest and detention of law-abiding citizens exercising their Second Amendment right to 'keep and bear arms' that are in common use for lawful purposes.

55. California Penal Code § 12276.1 is unconstitutionally vague and results in the wrongful confiscation of common and ordinary firearms, that are protected by the Second Amendment, from their law-abiding owners.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF:
FOURTH AMENDMENT, UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION
42 USC § 1983, 1988 - INJUNCTIVE/DECLARATORY RELIEF
AGAINST DEFENDANTS: HARRIS AND CALIFORNIA DEPT OF JUSTICE

56. Paragraphs 1 through 55 are incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

57. California Penal Code § 12031(e) is unconstitutional on its face, and as applied in this case. Mere possession of a firearm, (i.e., exercising a fundamental right) when otherwise lawful, cannot support a finding of probable cause to believe a crime has been committed, such that the Fourth Amendment's warrant requirement can be legislatively disregarded.

58. Plaintiff BRENDAN RICHARDS requests declaratory and/or prospective injunctive relief under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 against the Defendants HARRIS and CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE to prevent future violations of his constitutional right to be free from unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution, while he is exercising his Second Amendment rights.

59. Plaintiffs CALGUNS FOUNDATION, INC., and SECOND AMENDMENT FOUNDATION, INC., requests declaratory and/or prospective injunctive relief under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 against the Defendants HARRIS and CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE to prevent prevent future violations of their members' constitutional right to be free from unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment, while exercising their Second Amendment rights.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF:
42 USC § 1983, 1988 - INJUNCTIVE/ DECLARATORY RELIEF
CALIFORNIA PENAL CODE §§ 12276.5 & 12289
AGAINST DEFENDANTS: HARRIS AND CALIFORNIA DEPT OF JUSTICE

60. Paragraphs 1 through 59 are incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

61. Plaintiffs BRENDAN RICHARDS, CALGUNS FOUNDATION, INC., and SECOND AMENDMENT FOUNDATION, INC., seek prospective injunctive relief against the Defendants HARRIS and CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE to compel them to comply with their duties under California Penal Code §§ 12276.5 and 12289.

62. Said injunctive relief will insure uniform and just application of California's Weapons Control Laws. Uniform and just enforcement of these laws are important because these laws regulate the fundamental Second Amendment right of every law abiding citizen to keep and bear arms that are in common use for lawful purposes.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF:
42 USC § 1983, 1988 - INJUNCTIVE RELIEF
DEFENDANTS: CITY OF ROHNERT PARK AND OFFICER BECKER

63. Paragraphs 1 through 62 are incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

64. Plaintiffs BRENDAN RICHARDS, CALGUNS FOUNDATION, INC., and SECOND AMENDMENT FOUNDATION, INC., seek injunctive relief against the Defendants CITY OF ROHNERT PARK and OFFICER BECKER that will require amendments to their policies and training to address:

- a. Identification of assault weapons under California law.
- b. Compliance with the Fourth Amendment's requirements for a lawful search.

65. Said injunctive relief will insure uniform and just application the Fourth Amendment and of California's Weapons Control Laws. Uniform and just enforcement of these laws are important because these laws effect the fundamental Second Amendment right of every law abiding citizen to keep and bear arms that are in common use for lawful purposes.

FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF:
FOURTH AMENDMENT | UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION
42 USC § 1983, 1988 - DAMAGES
DEFENDANTS: CITY OF ROHNERT PARK AND OFFICER BECKER

66. Paragraphs 1 through 65 are incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

67. WHEREFORE, the Plaintiffs requests that this Court:

- A. Issue a declaratory judgment and/or injunctive relief that California Penal Code § 12276.1 is unconstitutional.

- 1 B. Issue a declaratory judgment and/or injunctive relief that California
2 Penal Code § 12031(e) is unconstitutional.
- 3 C. Issue a declaratory judgment and/or prospective injunctive relief to 4 compel Defendants KAMALA HARRIS and the CALIFORNIA
5 DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE to issue appropriate memorandums
6 and/or bulletins to the State's District Attorneys and Law Enforcement
7 Agencies to prevent wrongful arrests.
- 8 D. Injunctive relief against CITY OF ROHNERT PARK and OFFICER
